

Strengthening Relationships Between First Nations and Municipalities

Chief Brent Niganobe, Mississauga First Nation

Chief Sherri-Lyn Hill, Six Nations of the Grand River

Deputy Grand Chief Chris Plain, Anishinabek Nation

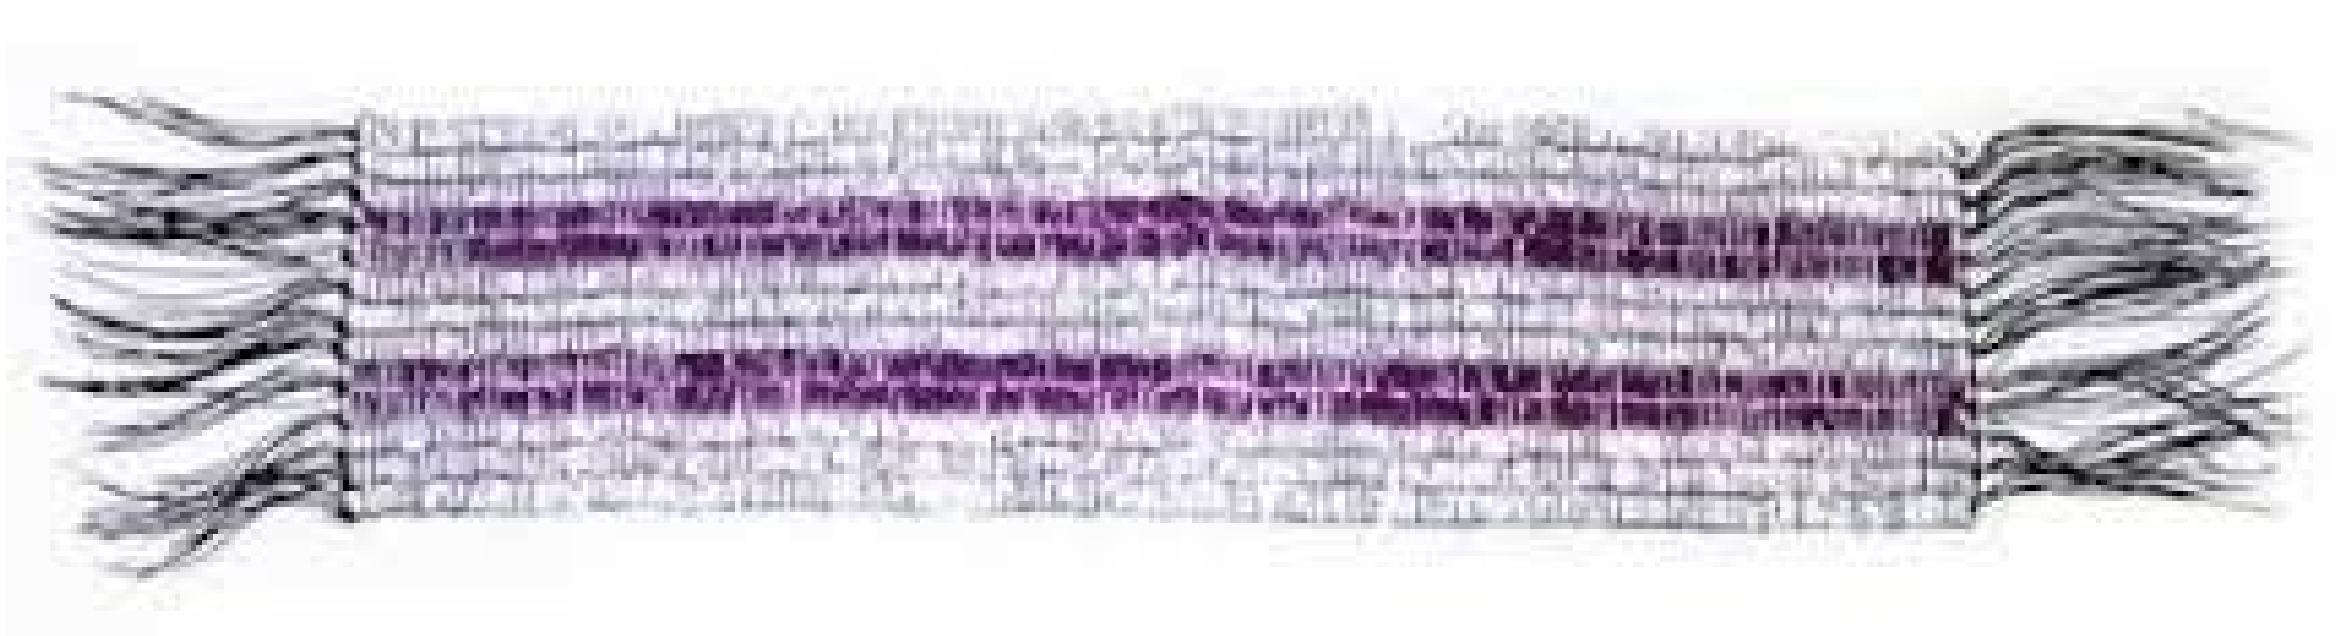

Chief Brent Niganobe, Mississauga First Nation

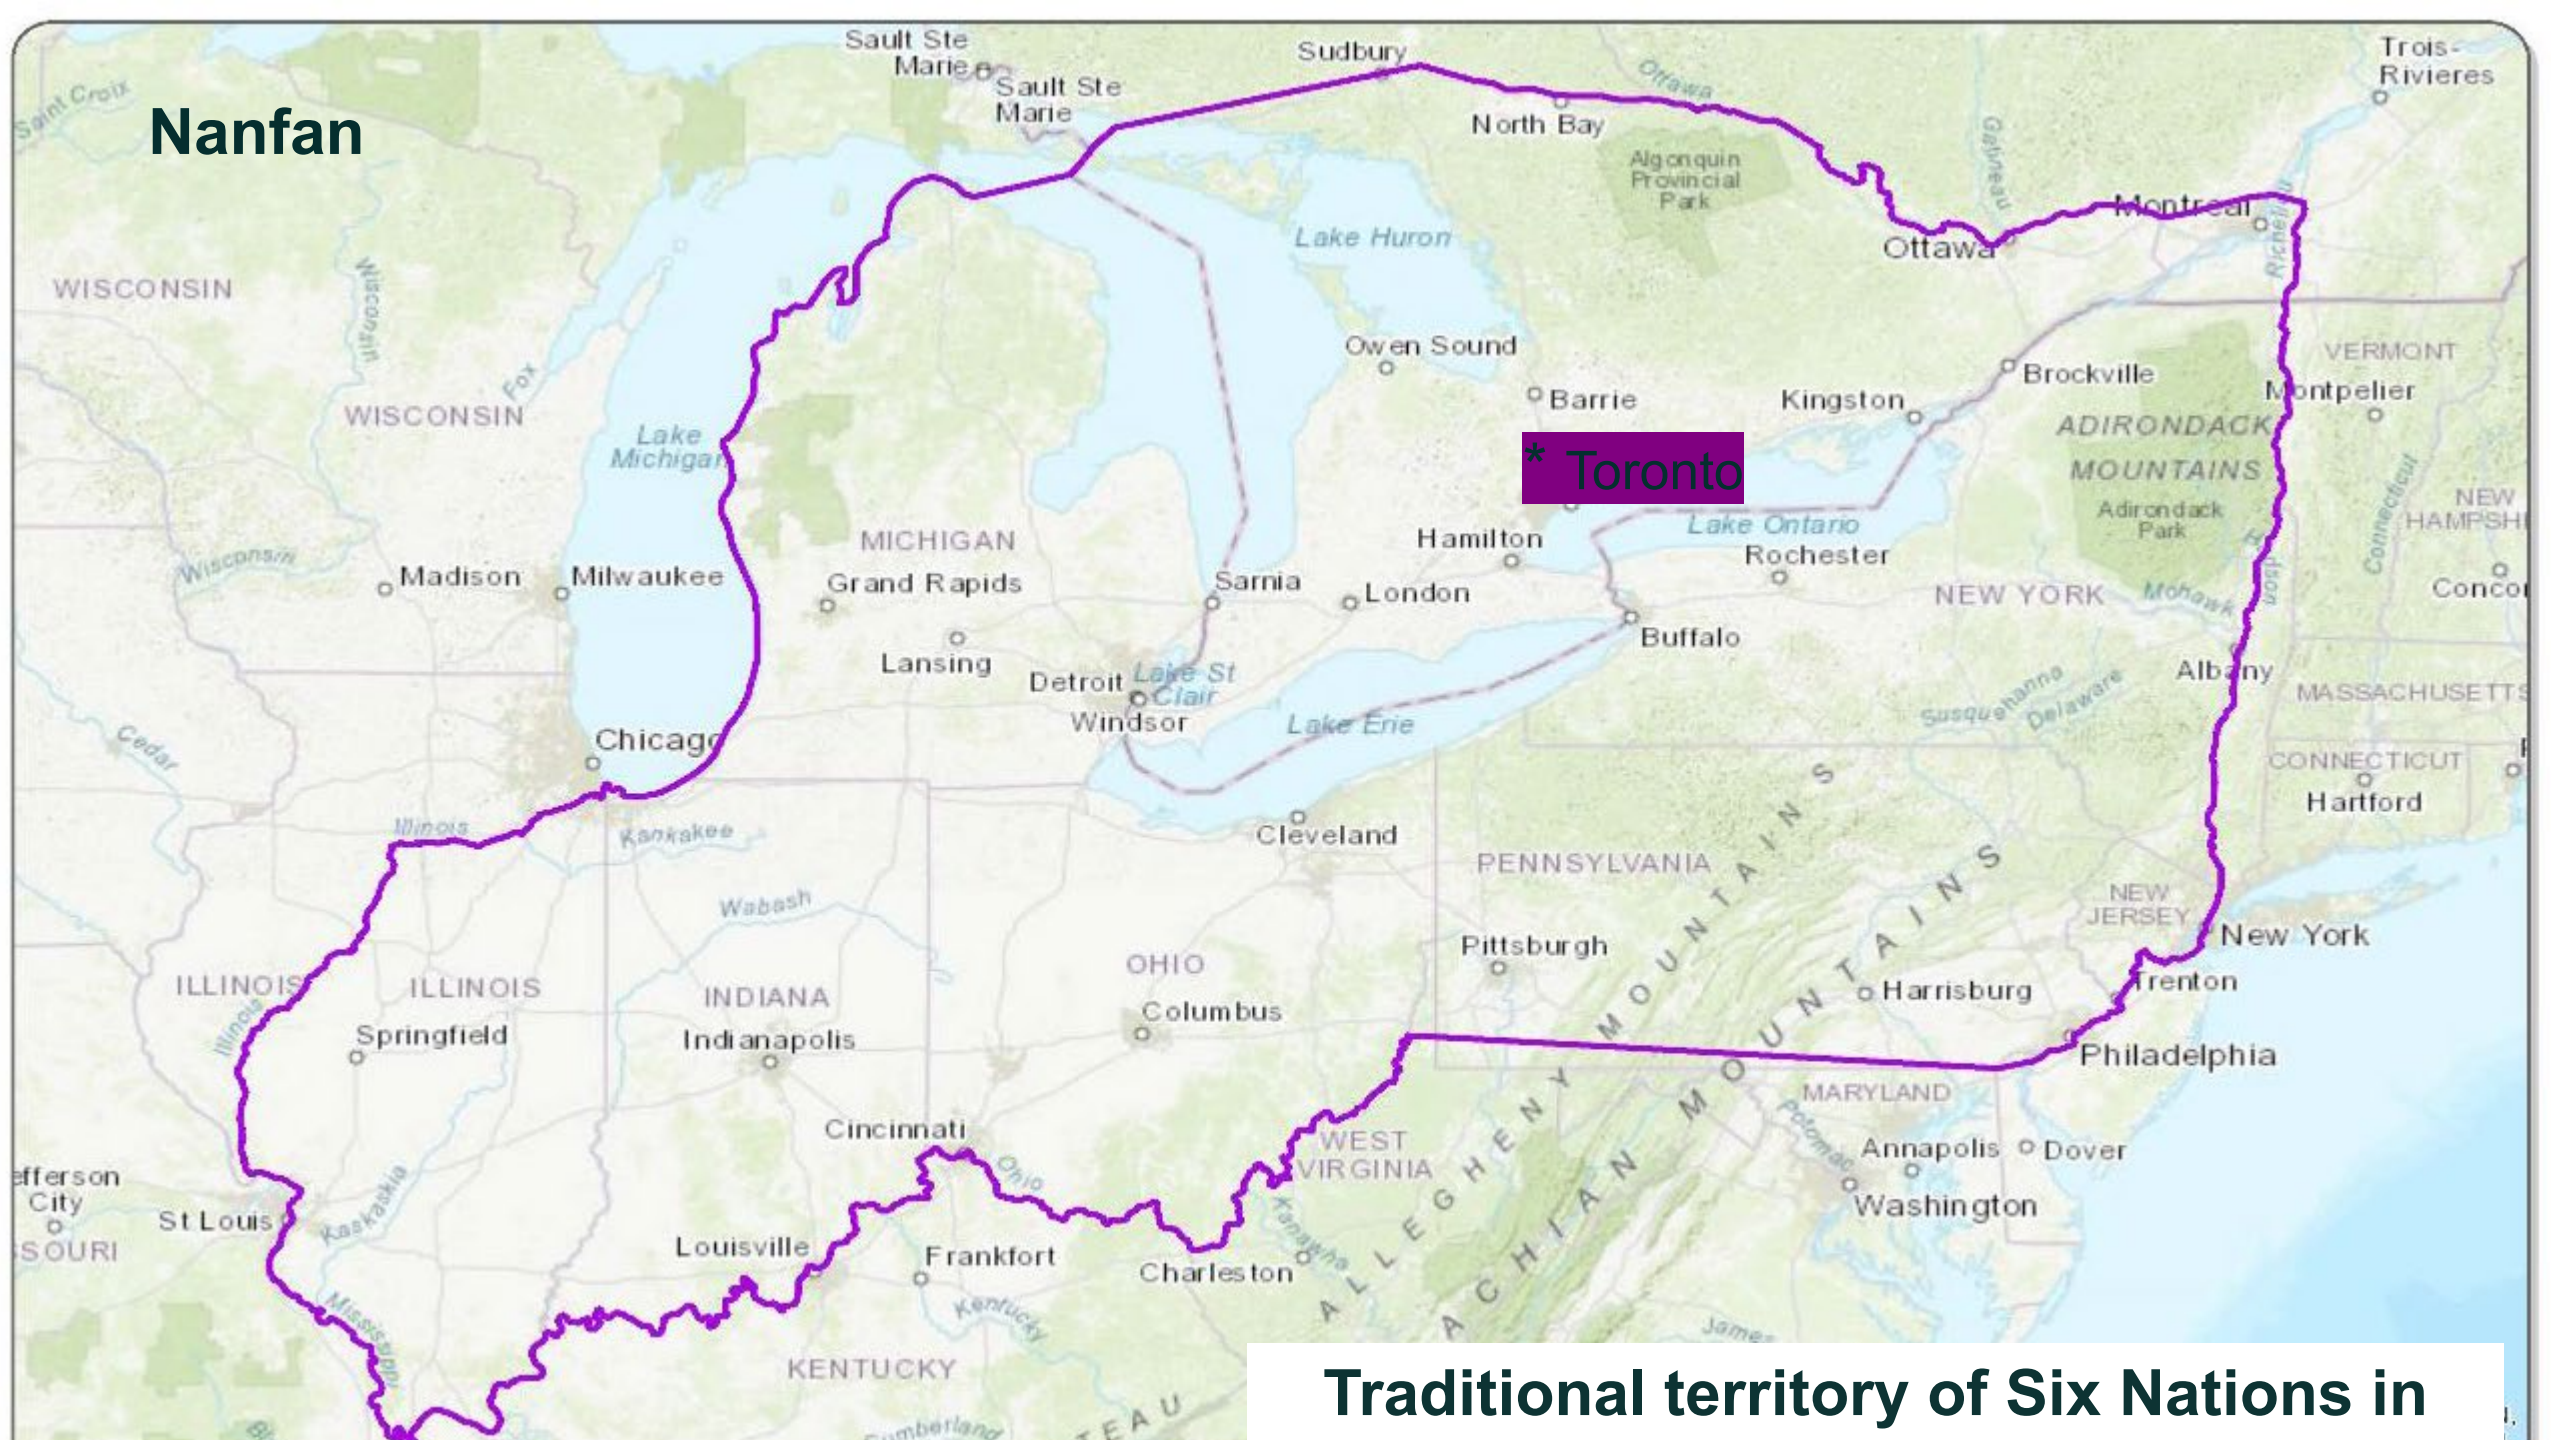

Elected Chief Sherri-Lyn Hill
www.sixnations.ca

The Two Row Wampum Belt

An agreement, between Six Nations and Dutch Settlers in the early 1700's, to share the land in peace, friendship, and respect; each party was to retain their own ways of knowing, living and being.

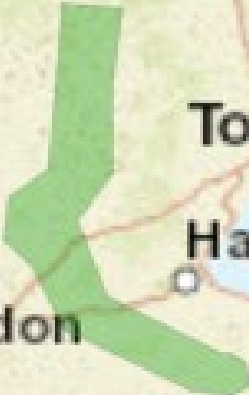

Nanfan

* Toronto

Traditional territory of Six Nations in

Haldimand Tract Lands

Source: <https://www.roma.on.ca/about-roma/zone-map>

Present Day
Six Nations

Current priorities with Municipalities:

Duty to Consult

Restore Municipal Property
Tax Exemption

Build Relationships

Deputy Grand Chief Chris Plain, Anishinabek Nation

Questions?